BRAVO - NEW YORK: FOR STEPPING UP TO THE SOLUTION

Oseloka Obaze

We have had CKC-AAA Conventions and each once is unique despite having the same standard operating procedure for convention planning, which makes everything seem rote. The difference lies in the people and the will to rise above all impediments. But more importantly, four critical elements make the difference: leadership by example, grounded on goodness, discipline and knowledge. These qualities played out starkly in New York.

“New York 2011” has gone into the annals of CKC-AAA conventions. We could not have asked for a better outing. The convention work and procedure went well and seamlessly so. Indeed, it may end up being about the best convention we have had in fifteen years. The attendance was equally impressive. But knowing the CKC can do spirit; another LOC will soon seek to top it. We await results of the donations and pledges. This is anecdotal, but a true story; a lady reached into her wallet to dole out a gift of $100 to CKC-AAA during the banquet, however, when she heard co-MCs announcing donations of “$1000”, “$2000”, “$5,500”, “$8,000” and “undisclosed enclosed amount”, she felt intimidated and put her gift back in her purse.

Big Apple was great! Old Boys of all sets --the 40s, 50s, 60s, 70s, 80s, and 90s showed up, the most junior being the eloquent Dr. Murtala Mohammed Bagana ('94). MMB-- thanks for being there and for literally doing the heavy lifting. Mr. President has already apologised to you for the administrative mix-up; accept same in the true CKC spirit. Stay proactive!! To senior-seniors, Chief Chike Ofodile, Mr. Innocent Onnonaji, Mr. Julius Arinzeh, Prof. Alexander Acholonu, Dr. Christopher Enu, Dr. Anthony Udeogalanaya, Dr. Imma Uketui and especially our esteemed keynote speaker, Prof. Cyril Enwonwu. A special mention goes to Akwa, Stagger Lee Emeka Nwokeji; thanks for the grace and awesome presence. Thank you all for showing the light so graciously and gracefully. We stand on your shoulders.

We thank H.E. Gov. Peter Obi, an eminent alumnus, who held an extended interactive session with Old Boys on Sunday, first at the Excom Breakfast Session and later, at the lunch hosted by the Agbimsons. We are sorry some old boys left early to catch their flights. We are glad we resolved the outstanding issue. We also had several old boys from Nigeria, namely, HRH Emma Nnabuife, ('73) and Victor Okey Orakwue ('71) and Patrick Okafor ('71). The boys of the 1973 Limboye Set – Ray Okoye, Felix Ezejioko, Emma Nnabuife, Charles Ibeziako and yours truly, outnumbered the rest of the class pack. We could have been more! Why not?

To hostesses Uche Agbimson, Chinwe Ofor and other spouses, thank you. To the visiting spouses, we hope the CKC-AAA New Jersey sponsored NYC Limo Tour for you and the kids were worthwhile. Thanks to Ladies Ifey Onua and Ofunne Obaze for pushing that initiative. It was a win-win proposal and worthy template. CKC-AAA is and remains a family affair.

Congrats to 2011 ESA winners: Messrs Charles Belonwu, Felix Ezejiofo, Lennox Annunwah and Jerry Ogbudimkpa. You have all earned your distinguished stripes through a rigorous peer review and assessment. It isn't easy! Odiro ofele!! It is all about commitment!!!

There were many new faces and new comers to this year's convention. For some, close proximity rather than keen interest might have prompted attendance. But not for others who came from far away. We also know that there were some who were within arms length of Long Island, but did not show. So much for the values imbued in us at CKC. We preach to those we see: so great salute and shout out to Okey Nwozo, Dozie Nnama, Anthony Emengo, Ray Okoye, Charlie Ibeziako, Julius Arinzeh, Louis Chukwurah, Chike Obianwu, Anali Okolonji and Arthur Onuora, who made their CKC-AAA convention debut in New York. We thank all first timers -- let's do it again in 2012 at the Dallas/Houston, Texas Convention. Whereas all things seemed rosy, we missed the people who have become constants that were absent; Fidelis Atuegbu, Fr. Ugo Arinze, Chris Ayika, Eddyfunn Ikemefuna Tagbo Ekwonu, Francis Nwankwo, Francis Asokwu Sea, Jude and Emeka Akudinobi, Mike Azodo, Clement Nduka, Jerry Ogbudimkpa, Chris Inoma, Dom Ezeani, Emeka Uzoh and Tony Machie.

At the banquet we had close to 200 guests and some fifty (50) CKC Old Boys in attendance, with many spouses in tow. We had special wine named "Primus". We thank our friends and supporters, from Government College Umuahia, Government Secondary School, Afikpo, D.M.G.S., Onitsha, C.I.C, Enugu, Queens College Enugu and especially those darling "sisters" from QRC, Onitsha. That special "CKC-QRC only" dance was nostalgic and dredged up "Old Skool" feelings. And thanks to whiz kid, DJ Mecca (Emeka Izegebu), we danced until the feet screamed for mercy. Needless to say that Emma Onua and Larry Ozoh were a class act. For them, "a superlative performance" is the defining phrase for M-Ceeing the banquet.

Of the very few things that happened that might have been distractive or vexatious, the loquaciousness of some new comers who wanted to show off was perhaps the least. Those who came and had fun but still walked away without paying their membership registration and annual dues only belittled themselves. They share in the credit of what CKC-AAA has accomplished; and we will forge on, with or without them. However, some of us were peeved that after many years of struggling and indeed, arriving at a point where we are now able to showcase our school colours through our college blazers, there was a glaring disinterest in doing so. It was very appalling that only five people wore their blazers to the plenary session and only two to the banquet. Amaka Boys, we should be as bold as our stripes and as President Onua said, "wear them proudly". Never again, even if it means making it mandatory to appear at the Banquet only in the College Blazer! I'll lead that charge.

Finally, I concur with the President Onua: "Yes indeed: We went, we took care of "binnez", we enjoyed, and we accomplished our goal!" That is why we are called Amaka Boys. Everything in New York was for one splendid weekend nothing but Amaka --Fabulous! BRAVO NY LOC! Well done and thanks. You promised and you delivered. All things put together, full and total credit goes to Gene Agbimson and Co. May the fame of our College last forever. Primus!
