

Dear Amaka Boys:

As we head to Chicago on Saturday November 28, 2009 to pay our last respect to our beloved Charles Okoye, the CKC family is stricken by another very bad news.

The passing of Nnanyelugo Prince Augustine Obiora Onyejekwe, Class of 1970, who lost a prolonged battle with cancer in Houston recently. Please remember him and his family in your prayers. Augustine was a very humble and unassuming guy. He did CKC and his family great pride when as a CKC student he succeeded his late father, Obi Onyejekwe I of Onitsha at the throne for the late Obi's last Ofala in 1970.

May his soul and that of Charles Okoye rest in peace.

Primus
